

APPENDIX D(ii)

2021 sites and 2017 (non-strategic sites) – MAPs

The location of sites identified from the 2021 Call for Sites and the 2017 non – strategic sites listed in Appendix E (ii) can be found using the HELAA interactive map available on the EDDC website using the following web link and scrolling down towards the end of the webpage

Housing and Economic Land Availability Assessment - East Devon

A click on a site shown on the map will show the relevant site reference(s).

A map is included as part of a site's assessment profile in Appendix F(ii).for each site identified from these 2021 and 2017 (non-strategic) sites that have been assessed for potential housing development.

A compendium of maps showing the location of the sites identified from the 2021 Call for Sites and the 2017 non – strategic sites, together with sites identified from the 2022 Call for sites and other supply sources will be produced at the HELAA part 2 stage, to be included in the Combined HELAA report.
